

Celebrating 75 agedness of Tamil cinema

Contributed by Celebrity Admin
Tuesday, 07 August 2007

The Nadigar Sangam's line of celebrations to celebrate 75 senility of Tamil cinema kicked snuff in Singapore on Monday.

Sarath Kumar, president, Nadigar Sangam inaugurated the celebrations with a individual screening of yesteryear model MGR's blockbuster Nadodi Mannan.

He said, The succession of celebrations would mind's eye the achievements of contrasted stalwarts of the Tamil filmdom. Various films euphonious shows and seminars would be unknown on the occasion.

Among those name on the set about included Sarath Kumar, Radhika Sarath Kumar, matured actress Sri Priya and inspiration S A Chandrasekhar.

The mega hero nighttide by Nadigar Sangam in Singapore (initially budgeted for 11 August) would be open on 6 October. It would be followed by a parallel clock in in San Francisco, USA, on 21, 22 and 23 November.